

BOSTON COMMON

Escape: Check Out 5 Must-See Resorts for Your Next Road Trip

Michael McCarthy | March 5, 2021 | Lifestyle Travel

The calendar waits for no one. Despite the chilly tug of March, we know warmer, longer days are coming. Which is why we've assembled a roundup perfect for planning weekend escapes—from an impressive new spa in the Finger Lakes to a recently christened hotel in the heart of Newport. Grab the keys; let's go.

Hammetts Hotel

Opened last summer, this 84-room property is a nod to Newport's historic mercantile wharves seen through the lens of a modern aesthetic. In addition to sleek rooms and suites, the springtime appeal is the hotel's 9,000-square-foot deck that transforms into a guests-only outdoor living room—away from the foot traffic of the harbor's Quarter Deck—once the weather warms. Art collectors, stop by the Sarah Langley Gallery, which is located on the hotel's lobby level. Commerce Suite from $417 per night, 4 Commercial Wharf, Newport, R.I., 401.324.7500, hammettshotel.com

The living room-like deck at Hammetts Hotel, which opened last summer in Newport

<https://mlbostoncommon.com/5-luxury-resorts-for-your-next-road-trip>