MSC Cruises new Divina is escorted into Port Miami by a high-powered Fiat personal watercraft.

Cruising in style

The elegant MSC Divina made cruise history recently when she was escorted into Port Miami by a fleet of high-powered Fiat personal watercraft.

The show-stopping entrance marked the end of an 18-night Atlantic Ocean crossing to Miami from Venice, Italy.

"We are thrilled to welcome one of our finest and most innovative vessels in North America," Richard Sasso, president and CEO of MSC Cruises U.S.A., said.

The new ship features two dining venues created in partnership with Manhattan's Italian restaurant emporium Eataly, and is the first ship to offer aqua-cycling at sea. Christened by Sophia Loren, Divina has 1,751 staterooms, a casino, seven restaurants, 18 bars and lounges, five swimming pools, bowling alley, theatre, fitness centre, spa, kids and teens area and a conference centre.

Children 11 years of age and under sail free with two full-fare paying guests in the same stateroom, and children 12 to 17 sail at a reduced rate.
