This year, Valentine's Day (Feb. 14) and Presidents' Day (Feb. 16) fall back-to-back, offering the perfect time to swap a dinner reservation for a weekend escape.

Whether you're planning a romantic couples getaway, a Galentine's trip with friends or just a cozy weekend to unplug, you don't have to go far to find something special. From fire-dancing Adirondack lodges to Hamptons luxury with prix fixe menus, here's a guide to overnight stays and experiences within driving distance from Long Island.

EAST END*The Hampton Maid

For Long Islanders who prefer a closer-to-home escape, the hotel (hamptonmaid.com, 631-728-4166) offers casual Hamptons luxury in a serene setting. The Valentine's Package stay starts at $520 per night and includes a complimentary bottle of Cava, dinner for two and breakfast in bed.

R.AIRE, the hotel's on-site restaurant, offers a special Valentine's prix fixe menu ($95 per person) featuring Spanish-inspired tapas, paella, seafood and an extensive wine selection. A complimentary bottle of Cava and amuse-bouche kick off the evening. This is a simple, indulgent option for couples who want romance without the stress of a long drive.

The Sagaponack

For couples, families and friends, the lodge (lodgeatschroonlake.com, 518-987-0708), offers a charming winter wonderland. The 36-acre lakefront property, renovated in 2023, offers a mix of Adirondack charm and modern comfort. Guests can ski nearby Gore Mountain, snowshoe trails at Natural Stone Bridge & Caves, snowmobile right up to the lodge or relax in the heated indoor pool.

The lodge's Fire & Ice Weekend (Feb. 13-14) is a free, open-to-all winter festival featuring fire dancers performing hourly aerial shows, ice bar cocktails including tropical and jalapeño-infused drinks, s'mores roasting and lawn games in the snow and flame-kissed food specials and hot drinks at the Brown Swan Tavern. The weekend package starts at $384 and includes a $50 per night food and beverage credit and can be booked online.

The Valentine's Package stay includes dinner for two at the Brown Swan, Champagne and Barkeater chocolates upon arrival. Rates start at $700 per night.

"It adds something exciting for adults while still giving kids plenty of activities," said Kayla Staffeldt, marketing manager. "You can have kids watching a movie in the main lodge while parents are outside by the fire pits watching performances."

Pennsylvania

Inn at Swarthmore

10 S. Chester Rd., Swarthmore

DRIVING DISTANCE FROM MELVILLE: About 3 hours away

If you want a city-adjacent escape without downtown chaos, the inn (innatswarthmore.com, 610-543-7500) is about 30 minutes outside Philadelphia with stays starting at $250 per night. Its Romance Package includes champagne, chocolate-covered strawberries and a $50 credit toward dinner at Broad Table Tavern, with locally sourced, seasonal menus. Rates start at $344 a night.

Couples and friends can explore Philly's museums, Old City and dining scene during the day, then return to quiet accommodations in a cozy, residential setting.
